

24 September 2009

John Menzies plc welcomes OFT findings

Menzies Distribution, the newspaper and magazine wholesaling division of John Menzies plc, welcomes today's announcement by the OFT that it has opted not to refer the Newspaper and Magazine supply chain to the Competition Commission.

The announcement brings closure at present to what has been a lengthy process – and allows us to devote our full energies to the delivery of improved customer service standards, which will have knock-on benefits for consumers.

For further information contact:

John Geddes, Company Secretary, John Menzies plc

0131 459 8180

